

Library Advisory Committee

The Library Advisory Committee gives advice on resource development and other activities related to users' needs to library. Library Advisory Committee gives advice on policy matters, Collection Development, Services and Facilities and any other work related to the Library. Library Advisory Committee's role is to balance all subjects resource development.

Responsibilities of Library Advisory Committee:

1. Library Advisory Committee can advice on specific issues, problems and concerns related to library and make recommendations to the head of institute.
2. Obtain the advice and views of the users on library needs in their area, and report these views.
3. Suggest/recommend programs to the Librarian.
4. To supervise the allocation and utilization of funds for different departments for purchase of books and journals.
5. To consider and put forward the views of faculty members regarding books/journals selection, ordering process etc.