Opportunities For Start-Ups: Business ideas

20th October, 2018

Post Graduate Seminar was held on 20th October 2018, on the topic "Opportunities for Start-Ups: Business ideas".

Start-up culture has caught on in India, on the lines of the US. The Government has announced subsidies and exemptions in order to motivate and encourage individuals to start their own businesses and innovate. The idea is to reduce unemployment and uncover the vast talent potential of skilled workforce. Pune, as you are aware, ranks number two in India, after Bengaluru, in terms of the number of start-ups floated. So much

So that, Economic Times has added a section of awards solely for start-up founders. With this aim, we have initiated this seminar. The main purpose is to guide and educate our young post-graduate students on the various gradation of initiating a start-up.

The seminar was inaugurated by Mr. Ravi Gadre, an Industrialist from Pune. From day one of his business he continuously searched for the product to be manufactured under his own brand which will be unique and will not have competition. A product “Motorised Barrel and Container Pump” manufactured by him was awarded by Maharashtra Chamber of Commerce and Industries Pune in 1988 as Import Substitute product

He interacted with the students on different topics and explained how to become a successful entrepreneur. He also explained that the entrepreneur should find the difficulties faced by the people in doing their work and then search for the product to be manufactured which will reduced their difficulties. This will help the entrepreneur to manufacture unique product which will make him successful. According to him building something from the ground up can make starting a business very rewarding in itself. He told some of his unique products manufactured by him to the students.

In the second session Mr. Gohad, from District Industries Centre interacted with the students on the topic how to start the business and the different formalities to be completed
